ALL MEMBERS – TERMS AND CONDITIONS

AUDITIONS

- Ordinarily, there is no audition for entry to the CBOI. However, if there are an exceptional number of applicants for places in a particular section, applicants/re-applicants/existing members may be auditioned and places awarded accordingly.
- Once applicants have accepted their place in CBOI, they will be auditioned by video submission or in person. This enables us to place applicants correctly within the orchestra. AUDITION REQUIREMENT: Two contrasting pieces (preferably of contrasting tempo) at the appropriate level e.g. If you are auditioning for 1st Violins, you should play two Grade 8 pieces.
- Members may be auditioned at intervals to ensure they are placed correctly within the Orchestra. These auditions will take place in order to ensure balance in orchestral sections. Members will be notified if these auditions are taking place.
- New, returning, existing members may be auditioned prior to international tours.
- Any attempt to influence the outcome of auditions will disqualify the applicant.
- If a new leader is being appointed, members of the violin sections may audition.
- Leaders are ordinarily appointed for one season in the first instance. *The CBOI reserves the right to make exceptions to this rule

AVAILABILITY AND COMMITMENT

The strength of the CBOI for has been in the dedication and commitment of our members and families, this is something we value greatly and must strive to maintain. We congratulate the huge number of our members who have 100% attendance at all rehearsals, workshops and concerts each year! This has resulted in the extremely high performance standard of our Orchestra.

- Players will not receive permission to be absent on any day or for any part of a rehearsal, workshop, course or tour.
- Orchestra members are given ample notification of the schedule of rehearsals, workshops and concerts, including rehearsals on the day of a concert. CBOI reserves the right to make changes to dates if necessary. Players are asked to carefully consider the schedule before confirming their availability.
- Members who have 4 absences from rehearsals / performances / workshops, without relevant medical certification will lose their place in the CBOI.
- If you miss more than 1 hour of a rehearsal/workshop or performance, this is deemed an absence.
- If players cannot commit to the full schedule of rehearsals, workshops, performances and tours, they should not apply to join/re-join the CBOI.
- Members who break their commitment, may lose their place in the CBOI permanently.
- SPECIAL CONCESSIONS 1 – Members in a Senior Exam Year: All members are expected to participate in every concert without exception. However, if you are in a SENIOR EXAM YEAR, and feel you need a slightly reduced rehearsal schedule, please contact us directly, in advance of the New Season. We will try to facilitate you as best we can. If we do not hear from you in advance of the New Season, we will presume you have considered the schedule and are able to fully commit to all workshops, rehearsals, concerts and concert tours.
- SPECIAL CONCESSION 2 – Musicians Who Have Been a Member of CBOI For 10 Years or More: Musicians who have been fully committed members of the CBOI for 10 years or more and who have extenuating circumstances but wish to remain in the CBOI, may request a slightly reduced rehearsal schedule. These members should contact us directly in advance of the New Season. These members must commit to the full performance schedule.

CROSS BORDER ORCHESTRA OF IRELAND & PEACE PROMS

Peace through music since 1995

- SPECIAL CONCESSION 3 – International Members / Members Studying Abroad: Musicians who have been fully committed members of the CBOI and who are studying abroad but wish to remain in the CBOI, may request a reduced rehearsal schedule but should aim to attend at least 1 rehearsal per month. These members should contact us directly in advance of the New Season. These members must commit to the full performance schedule. * Special arrangements to join rehearsals via zoom can be made for International Members / Members Studying Abroad.
- SPECIAL CONCESSION 4 – Adult Members: The CBOI accepts members from all over Ireland and Northern Ireland. Although the majority of members are between the ages of 13 and 24 years, we also consider applications from accomplished adults who would value the exceptional rehearsal and performance opportunities provided by the CBOI. All adult orchestral instrumentalists may apply. New applicants should be in a position to join from August of each year. The CBOI reserve the right to make exceptions in all cases.

PROTOCOL FOR UNAVOIDABLE ABSENCES: Details must be sent in advance, giving as much notice as possible to cboisharon@gmail.com Please include your reason for absence and a Doctor's Certificate where appropriate.

REHEARSAL AND PERFORMANCE

- Members must accept rules concerning group discipline while under rehearsal and performance or in residence. These are based on common sense, safety, consideration for others and the requirements of performance.
- Members perform in public as members of the orchestras at the discretion of the CBOI. Where they are not up to standard for any reason during the courses, they may be sent home. The decision of the management will be final.
- Mobile phones must be fully switched off during all rehearsals and should never be brought on stage.
- High caffeine drinks like Red Bull, Monster etc are completely banned. Soft drinks and sweets are banned during rehearsals and performances and intake should be very limited at all other times.
- Players must have their music printed off, in order inside a protective folder and bring a soft pencil for marking music and erasers at every rehearsal.
- The policy of the CBOI is to conduct closed rehearsals. No-one is permitted to attend rehearsals without invitation. CBOI will ask anyone without an invitation to leave.
- All players are expected to be able to work during rehearsals and to perform to the highest level.

All Members must:

- Sign a registration book/sheet on arrival at rehearsals/concerts/events
- Always make sure a member of staff is informed if they are unable to attend an individual rehearsal/event or will be late* for any reason.
- Submit forms for CBOI membership/medical information/dietary information etc. which have been signed by their parents/carers to the office by the relevant deadline in advance of attending rehearsals/events
- Be aware of the physical boundaries of the property where the rehearsal/workshop takes place and never leave them without permission from a member of staff during the course. At rehearsal workshops at break times there is the opportunity to for members to go to the local shop. This is unsupervised and members who have permission to go are advised to go in pairs. Parents who do not want their child to go to the shops may opt out of this activity by advising CBOI Management in writing.
- Not consume alcohol, drugs smoke or vape while participating in rehearsals, workshops, concerts or events of any kind.

CROSS BORDER ORCHESTRA OF IRELAND & PEACE PROMS

Peace through music since 1995

- If you wish to order food for delivery, make sure you order either at the interval of the concert and give a delivery time; or as soon as the concert is over. All food must be delivered by 12 midnight.
- Quiet must be observed in bedrooms after midnight in public and private accommodation in order to allow others who are asleep or who wish to sleep to rest undisturbed.
- No member under 21 years is allowed to leave the designated hotel of residence while on tour without written permission from their parents. Permission must be pre-agreed with CBOI Manager before the commencement of the tour.
- Member Under 21 are NOT permitted to consume alcohol or frequent the residence bar. While drinking is permitted for over 18s under Irish law, it is not permitted by CBOI while we are on tour or on CBOI time. Members aged 18 – 21yrs who wish to drink, must do so under the supervision of their parents. In this case, parents should make arrangements to stay with their son/daughter at alternative accommodation for overnights. Parents should provide us with written confirmation of arrangements. Anyone U21 years who is known to be drinking while on tour may be sent home and not be permitted to take part in any further tours, and may lose their place in CBOI.
- CBOI cannot be responsible for anyone who is drinking while on tour.
- Members over 21 years who wish to drink should an alternative venue and not the bar at our accommodation as this negatively influences younger members and makes the job of our chaperones more difficult.
- Members not staying in the same hotel accommodation as the rest of the group, are not permitted to frequent the residence bar of said hotel, or to visit rooms of other Orchestra Members.

INTERNATIONAL TOURS E.G. EUROPE / USA / ASIA (EXCLUDING ANNUAL IRE/UK PEACE PROMS TOUR)

- Everybody participating in an international tour must travel with, and stay with the group in the group at all times. Members may not make individual arrangements for international tours as this would make the tours logistically impossible and would compromise safety.
- Parents who wish to travel to see international concerts, are very welcome, but must make your own arrangements. Please bring all your relatives and friends to concerts however, we would ask you not to treat Concert Tours as a family holiday.
- Parents are asked to avoid making arrangements to meet with your Son/Daughter during the tour.
- Parents may wish to stay on in the US after the tour with their Son/Daughter. Adult members may also wish to stay on after the tour. We are happy to facilitate this arrangement.
- In exceptional circumstances, e.g. where Parents want their Son/Daughter to meet a relative who has travelled to the concert; this can be allowed but ONLY with PRIOR WRITTEN notice.

GENERAL

- Members participate in CBOI workshops, courses and tours at their own risk. Parents / guardians of players under 18 and adult members (those over 18) must arrange that instruments are insured under all circumstances including travel.
