Auditions

- Ordinarily, there is no audition for entry to the CUI programme. However, applicants may be assessed on their willingness and ability to commit to the full schedule of lessons.
- Participants may be auditioned at intervals to ensure they are progressing.
- Any attempt to influence the outcome of auditions will disqualify the applicant.
CBOI reserves the right to make exceptions in all cases*

Availability and Commitment

One of the CBOI's greatest strengths is the dedication and commitment of our members and families. This is something we value greatly and strive to maintain.

- CUI members will not receive permission to be absent on any day or for any part of a lessons, rehearsal, workshop, course or performance.
- CUI members are given ample notification of the schedule of lessons, workshops and performances. CBOI reserves the right to make changes to dates if necessary. Members are asked to carefully consider the schedule before confirming their availability.
- Members who have 3 absences from lessons / performances / workshops, without relevant medical certification will lose their place.
- If you miss more than 20 mins of a lesson/workshop or performance, this is deemed an absence.
- If players cannot commit to the full schedule of lessons, rehearsals, workshops or performances they should not apply to join/re-join the CUI programme.
- Members who break their commitment, may lose their place in the CUI programme permanently and may not be permitted to apply to join the CBOI.
- Members who do not practice between lessons, or are not progressing may lose their place in the CUI programme.

Instruments

- Instruments are provided on loan, free of charge to CUI Members, and remain the sole property of the CBOI.
- Members who disrespect their instrument and do not care for it properly or cause any kind of major or minor damage to an instrument, may lose their place on the CUI Programme.
- Members who damage their instruments or instrument accessories will be liable for the costs of repair or replacement.

Lessons, Workshops, Rehearsals and performance

- Members must accept rules concerning group discipline while under rehearsal and performance or in residence. These are based on common sense, safety, consideration for others and the requirements of performance.
- Members may be asked to perform with a group, in public at the discretion of the CBOI. Where they are not up to standard for any reason they may not be allowed to perform with the group. The decision of the management will be final.
- Mobile phones must be fully switched off during all lessons, rehearsals, workshops and performances.
- High caffeine drinks are completely banned. Soft drinks and sweets are banned during lessons, workshops, rehearsals and performances and intake should be very limited at all other times.
- Members may be sent music by email or through a link. They must have their music printed off and in a folder or downloaded onto an iPad/Android. Bring a pencil for marking music to every lesson, workshop, rehearsal or performance.
- Lessons may be closed lessons or parents may be requested to attend. Workshops and rehearsals are closed and no-one is permitted to attend without invitation. CBOI will ask anyone without an invitation to leave.
- All players are expected to be able to work during lessons, workshops and rehearsals and to perform to the highest level.
